

Janice Rerucha

Practice Areas:

- Business
- Elder Law
- Estate & Personal Planning
- Probate
- Trusts
- Wills

Jan Rerucha is a partner at Aron and Hennig, who has extensive experience with business organizations, estate and personal planning, probate and trust administration, and tax planning. Highly regarded for her estate planning practice, Jan regularly consults with regional law firms on complex estate and tax matters to render both sophisticated and practical solutions to meet client wealth preservation and transfer objectives. Her initial practice was as associate and partner with Corthell & King, where she worked extensively with the late John King. Recognized for her many community and pro bono activities.